Presidents Ram

Good Evening, All,

THANK YOU! Another successful party -- mostly because of all your help.

Mike Mc, you did a great job of getting us all to work together. Of course, we'll do it again next year, Mr.

Christmas-Party-Chairperson.

Jim, you know your numbers! And your poker chips. Great job.

Winnie, you know your money! Keeping track is not an easy job. Did you call the person from the show who won the CD-RW? I have the drive but don't have his name or number. Took the drive to the show, but wasn't sure if the winner was there or not. Let me know.

J.J., the ham was delicious and the ice cream cold. I know that because I had some of each. And, it took lots longer to load up my car when I was leaving the party than when I loaded it at home to come to the party.

Seems I have inherited a lot of stuff.

Mike B, thanks for your help with the ticket money. Sometimes Mom can't add two and two and come up with four.

Thank you again everyone for all your help. We'll do it again next year.

Linda

Tips and Tricks

Keyboard Shortcuts are key strokes which can save you many mouse clicks and considerable time. Most of them will work with Explorer windows, spreadsheets and word processor programs. Most are so quick and easy that everyone should use them – especially when your hands are on the keyboard anyway. Most shortcuts are shown on the pull-down menus in most programs on the right side of the menu opposite an action and can be used instead of clicking that action with your mouse pointer.

TO PRESS

Copy CTRL+C

Cut CTRL+X

Paste CTRL+V

Undo CTRL+Z

Delete DELETE

Issue new document or folder CTRL+N

Open existing document CTRL+O

Save CTRL+S

Save As F12 (Usually works)

Print CTRL+P

Select All CTRL+A

Select a block of text CTRL+Shift with any of the arrow keys Cancel a current action ESC

If you have a keyboard that includes the Windows Logo key you can use these keyboard shortcuts:

Display or hide the Start Menu Windows Logo Key

Display the System Properties +Break

Minimize all open windows +D

Open My Computer +E

Search for a File or Folder +F

Display Windows or Application Help +F1

Open Run dialog box +R

Places4aces

“(web)Sites4Soaring ah’s”

Where I ferret out interesting, neat & great sites for Elsie Acers.
Howard Shaughnessy, site seeker

Betcha you make lists ... but nothing like Gary Price's Lists of Lists www.specialissues.com/lol where you will find lists from Agriculture to People, Magazines from ABA Banking to World Trade. His list of Wealthy Dead Celebrities got my attention. While Elvis may have left the building he earns more money than any other W.D.C., $37-million last year alone, much better than Peanuts cartoonist, Charles Schultz, second at $29-million and John Lennon, third at $20-million. This is a Forbes magazine list where $3-million is the threshold to get in or suffer being kicked off as was James Dean, Andy Warhol and Keith Haring last year. As Elvis said, "Thank you, very much."

Happy 100th Birthday. December was the Centennial of Flight, that being a century ago that Orville & Wilbur had the Wright stuff to be airborne. You and I may be confined to model airplanes such as the paper ones found at www.asme.org/events/flight site where just about everything aviation is shown/written. Be sure to read the WB's grandniece's interview there.

The year is 1938 and Charles Weaver Cushman, an amateur photographer & alumnus of Indiana University, started taking Kodachrome photos of his travels across the USA, Europe, Middle East, Mexico and other countries. By 1969 he had 14,500 photos which are found at <http://webappl.dlib.indiana.edu/cushman/index.jsp> where one can browse by calendar years 1938-1969, geographic location, subject or topic as well as read Cushman's documentations of his photos.

He liked Illinois, 2478 photos were of our state, however California had the most 4723. Refreshing to see early views of the Golden Gate Bridge and unspoiled vistas of the west. Lots of vintage vehicles, too. Colors are bright & sharp. Flower, plant, tree lovers will find an abundance of photos.

What's for dinner? Welcome to Recitopia, the recipe lover's paradise where one can join 50,000 food lovers who share recipes, friendship, food humor, along with the love of great cooking.

Be Nice - Nice Is Good and so are the recipes. Yum yum.

Editors Note

SIG'S

Would you like to join a SIG? What is it? It's a Special Interest Group! We thought LCACE should offer the opportunity to all members to form and join a group of special interest to them. It would not be a class. What it would be is a meeting of similarly interested people in a particular subject so they could exchange information, have a Q & A among themselves, invite guest speakers, or do whatever! The SIG would organize itself and operate under its own rules. The SIG group would decide how often, where, when, and what to discuss.

What LCACE would do to help:

The SIG could try and book a day at the library if there is no other events scheduled. If, however, the SIG wanted to meet elsewhere, it would be the SIG's choice. The club's equipment, i.e., screen, and computer could only be used at the library if given the okay by an officer and responsibility taken by the SIG leader. The SIG name and information would be posted on the LCACE web site.

Possible subjects:

- Windows 9x
- XP
- Spreadsheet / Database
- Word processing
- Digital Photography
- Publishing
- Internet / Financial Information
- Quicken
- Games
- Genealogy
- Quilting
- Embroidery & the internet
- EBay

Here is your opportunity to talk with other members about the topic that is of most interest to you! It won't take many to get a group going – five (5) should do it – so let us know.

I spent a day in a nursing home helping residents with an Arts & Crafts project. It turned out so well. I enjoyed it as much or even more than they did. The project we created used two CD's per resident. There are many other things that can be made from these "garbage" items.

I'm asking if you will save those CD's for free Internet service you receive in the mail for me. I would really appreciate it. Please ask your family, friends and co-workers also, I think everyone gets them!

Thanks,

Donna Kalinoski

Editors Note: If you would like to drop them off at the next meeting I will ensure Donna gets them.
